EVIDENTIAL RECORDING SYSTEM

Redfish Technologies presents the next evolution in interview recording solutions from Indico Systems.

Indico Systems provides unparalleled features coupled with highly reliable recording, all accessed within a simple and efficient interface. It will operate on any standard PC environment, either as a standalone recording system or as part of an integrated enterprise evidence system. Indico Systems' central evidence platform manages all interview recordings and has the ability to add associated evidence files also allowing for live or post review/playback of the interviews anywhere on the network. For simplicity, all enhanced features are available on a standard Web Browser.

Speak to your Redfish Technologies representative today for a full demonstration of the system.
